EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Nike Melbourne Marathon Festival returned for its 43rd edition over the 11-12 December weekend, with 28,000+ registered participants – the largest running event in Australia in 2 years, marking a monumental milestone for the city and the running community alike.

The event was split over two days, allowing for social distancing, with the SriLankan Airlines 10KM, 5KM and free 3KM Walk supported by City of Melbourne all taking place Saturday afternoon. The Nike Marathon, Nike Half Marathon and Nike Wheelchair Marathon started an hour earlier than usual on the Sunday morning to accommodate for the December heat, though the weather gods were quite kind, with Melbourne providing a windless 12C 6am start, rising to 26C by midday.

Victoria's Brett Robinson and Tasmania's Milly Clark took first place as well as $20,000 cash prize for winning the Nike Melbourne Marathon, recording times of 2:14:33 and 2:26:59 respectively with Izzi Batt-Doyle and Jack Rayner crossing the line first for the Nike Half Marathon. Ian Gainey celebrated a special milestone earning his 30 Year Spartan Jersey in the Nike Wheelchair Marathon.

The 2021 event is proud to have helped raise $1.25M for over 160 deserving charities and causes across the country including official charity partner, the Cerebral Palsy Education Centre and associate charities JMB Foundation, Australian Red Cross, the Heart Foundation, and Very Special Kids.

After 2 years of COVID restrictions the City of Melbourne came alive to celebrate the return of its beloved marathon with the running community. Sincere appreciation to all of our partners for supporting the event with particular thanks to title partner Nike and premium partners SriLankan Airlines, BMW, Science in Sport and the City of Melbourne.

Congratulations and thank-you to all of the 2021 winners, the IMG event team, the volunteers who make the event possible, the Spartans and all of our participants for your continuous support over the years. I look forward to welcoming you all back to the 2022 Nike Melbourne Marathon Festival.

THE RACE

Our women's winner, Launceston's Milly Clark, ran her first marathon in more than two years and won in a personal best 2:26.59. Super mums Eloise Wellings (2:29.19) and Canberra's Marnie Ponton (2:31.54) along with Mornington Peninsula's Sarah Klein (2:32.36) all put themselves in the national selection mix by producing PBs.

"It was weird to get back into a big race again and great that it actually happened," Clark said.

"I was so nervous. I'd had some really strange dreams about the race the past few nights. Sometimes I won it, sometimes I came last, sometimes I didn't finish. It was nice how reality turned out."

THE RACE

The men's race proved a cracker with Richmond resident Brett Robinson having his first race since the Tokyo Olympics and Sydney's 2016 winner Tom Do Canto and Mosman's flying mullet Ed Goddard locked in a superb battle. It wasn't until after 38km and the pinch up Dallas Brooks Drive that Do Canto lost a little ground. But Goddard's blonde locks were still prominent at the front with Robinson until 39km and the turn into St Kilda Rd. That's when the 24-year-old hit the first-time marathoners wall.

"That's by far the hardest thing I've done my life. I felt so good with 4km to go and within a couple of steps my legs went to jelly," Goddard said.

There was more drama yet as an in pain Robinson slowed up on Wellington Parade, allowing Do Canto to close the gap to less than 50m.

"I was a bit worried when I got a stitch towards the end there and I kept looking behind, but once we got close to the stadium I knew I could hold them off," Robinson said. Robinson won in 2:14.33, while Do Canto (2:14.41) and Goddard (2:15.33) both ran PBs along with South Australian Riley Cocks (2:17.44). But there were plenty more PBs to come.

AGE RECORDS

All up 373 runners broke the magical 3-hr barrier - the most since 1987 and the Deek-inspired marathon boom.

Of those to finish the marathon by 9am, 21 were female, including Bendigo's Jill Wilkie who smashed Jean Albury's long-standing 55-59 age record from 1984 with her time of 2hrs 56mins and 8secs. It was an Australian record for her age group.

A few other age records also fell. Adelaide's Jennifer Robertson broke Tracie Edmondson's 50-54 age record with her time of 3:00.13. Sydney's Peter Sanders, who turned 75 recently, smashed the 75-79 age group record with his amazing time of 3:55.31, while Bundoora's Englishman Damien Bruneau went close to the 45-49 age record with his 2:27.58 run.

Port Adelaide 300-gamer and SEN commentator Kane Cornes broke his record time by an AFL player with his super 2:34.29 run.

And as they do every year, the Spartan Legends took centre stage. Despite having 2020 off, the fab five who have completed every Melbourne race since its inception in 1978 were back and all finished well under the 7hr time limit. Wayne Thompson (3:29.19) and John Dobson (4:13.45) even won their age categories. David Foskey, Bruce Hargreaves and Roger Weinstein kept their streak going via the slow course Brunton Avenue circuit.
