EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

OCTOBER 2 2022 MELBOURNE MARATHON

On the 2nd of October 2022, the nation's premier marathon running event, the Nike Melbourne Marathon Festival, returned to its signature spring timeslot of Sunday 2nd October. More than 34,500 registered participants of all ages, abilities and experience levels took part in its 44th edition— with international elite runners welcomed back into the fold for the first time since 2019.

Race day consisted of five distances, each starting at Batman Avenue and finishing with a lap of the iconic MCG. Events include the Nike Melbourne Marathon (42.195km), Nike Wheelchair Marathon (42.195km), Nike Half Marathon (21.1km), 10km Run, 5km Run and 3km Walk. Whether race goers embarked on their first marathon, smashed a personal best, or simply enjoyed a springtime walk with the family, there was a place for everyone at the start line.

Timothy Kiplagat Ronoh and Beatrice Cheptoo from Kenya took first place in the Marathon, with Timothy breaking the current record by more than one minute and 30 seconds in a time of 2:09:12. The day was particularly momentous for the event's three 'Spartan Legends', John Dobson, Wayne Thompson, and David Foskey who repped their eye-catching yellow Spartan singlets and completed their 44th consecutive Melbourne Marathon. Following in their footsteps were the hundreds of participants running their tenth Melbourne Marathon, who became recognized as Spartans.

This year, participants raised more than $1.1 million for almost 250 deserving charities and causes across the country including our official charity partner of 15-years, the Cerebral Palsy Education Centre, and associate charities Beyond Blue, Australian Red Cross, The Heart Foundation, JMB Foundation and Cure Cancer.

Sincere appreciation to all our partners for supporting the event with particular thanks to title partner Nike and premium partners SriLankan Airlines, BMW, Gatorade, and Bupa.

Congratulations to the winners and everyone who participated in the 2022 Nike Melbourne Marathon Festival. Whether you were tackling the 42.195km for the first or 44th time, soaking up the city's sights on the 3km track or cheering from the MCG grandstand, it was incredible to see the Australian running community out in full force and an honour to deliver another successful event for the city.

THE RACE

MEN

Kenya's Timothy Kiplagat Ronoh won the men's Nike Melbourne Marathon with a time of 2:09:12, smashing Dominic Ondoro's 2013 record by more than one minute and 30 seconds, doubling his winnings to $40,000 in prize money as a result of the achievement. At 29 years of age, today marked the third time Ronoh has ever run the 42.195km distance making the win even more special. In a close second place was fellow Kenyan Cornelius Kibet Kiplagat with a time of 2:10:24, followed by Melbourne's Reece Edwards in third place in 2:14:41.

WOMEN

The winner of the women's Nike Melbourne Marathon was Beatrice Cheptoo from Kenya who tackled the 42.195km course in time of 2:27:58, receiving a coveted cash prize of $20,000. The event and her achievement marked her first visit to Australia, one she won't forget. Adelaide's Izzi Batt-Doyle was the fastest Australian woman to cross the finish line in a time of 2:28:10 marking her debut in the 42.195km event. Yenebeba Maru Ejigu from Ethiopia rounded out the podium in third place with a time of 2:28:54.

THE RACE

NIKE HALF MARATHON

The first athlete to cross the Nike Half Marathon finish line was Melbourne's Jack Rayner who raced against the clock to secure a time of 1:02:16 – backing up his 2021 win in the same event. 2022 Commonwealth Games marathon winner Jess Stenson was the first woman to complete the 21.1km distance, with a time of 1:12:22. Her impressive time giving a taste of what's to come when she takes on the New York Marathon in November.

SRILANKAN AIRLINES 10KM

The SriLankan Airlines 10km was won in the men's category by Dale Carroll from Victoria with a time of 30:19. Adelaide's Caitlin Adams was the fastest female to complete the 10km event with a time of 32:27.

OTHER INFO

The Festival saw some of the city's biggest names take part including champion long-distance runner Steve Moneghetti and former AFL player Daniel Gorringe. Decorated Olympic swimmer Ariarne Titmus kicked off festivities by ringing the bell at the Nike Melbourne Marathon start line, and 2022 Australian of the Year Dylan Alcott celebrated his brother Zack's first half marathon on the finish line.

The event was also significant for five-year-old Sophie Payne who has received therapy from the Cerebral Palsy Education Centre since she was 12 months old. Sophie last participated in the 3km Walk at the Festival in 2019 and today, she celebrated a huge milestone by completing the course unassisted for the very first time alongside her parents David and Lorrae.

Cancer survivor Sam Warren was another awe-inspiring participant who followed in her father's footsteps by tackling her first full marathon. A new mother, Sam hopes to raise $5,000 for Mummy's Wish, a charity providing support services to mums of children under 13 whilst they are receiving treatment for cancer.

A number of colourful entrants also took part in the event, including a runner dressed as a Viking, a participant posing as a friendly neighbourhood Spiderman, and Melbourne police officer Glenn Holland snacking on a doughnut as he crossed the finish line.

The day was particularly momentous for the event's three 'Spartan Legends', John Dobson, Wayne Thompson and David Foskey who repped their eye-catching yellow Spartan singlets and completed their 44th consecutive Melbourne Marathon. Following in their footsteps were the hundreds of participants running their tenth Melbourne Marathon, who today became recognised as Spartans.

Not all the action took place on the running course with the Race Village entertainment precinct treating visitors to an array of delicious food trucks, live music from some of Melbourne's best buskers, coffee courtesy of St Ali, and a big screen broadcast of all the action across the weekend.
